Michael Jackson passes away at the age of 50.

CNN keeps reporting that he is in a coma and that they can't confirm he is dead, yet TMZ.com already reports he died at 2:20 pm PT. Now here is the first weird thing: according to reports, the doctors at UCLA pronounced him dead at 2:26 PT, 6 minutes after TMZ.com reports about his death.

Michael Jackson Dies

Originally posted Jun 25th 2009 2:20 PM PDT by TMZ Staff Like 18K

We've just learned Michael Jackson has died. He was 50.

Michael suffered a cardiac arrest earlier this afternoon at his Holmby Hills home and paramedics were unable to revive him. We're told when paramedics arrived Jackson had no pulse and they never got a pulse back.

A source tells us Jackson was dead when paramedics arrived. A cardiologist at UCLA tells TMZ Jackson died of cardiac arrest.

Once at the hospital, the staff tried to resuscitate him but he was completely unresponsive.

A source inside the hospital told us there was "absolute chaos" after Jackson arrived. People who were with the singer were screaming, "You've got to save him! You've got to save him!"

We're told one of the staff members at Jackson's home called 911.

La Toya ran in the hospital sobbing after Jackson was pronounced dead.

Michael is survived by three children: Michael Joseph Jackson, Jr., Paris Michael Katherine Jackson and Prince "Blanket" Michael Jackson II.

The media shows us the following footage:

Now here is what is wrong with this video. The ambulance is backing out of the property. The driver has to correct his way 2 times. Ambulance drivers get a special training, so the fact that he is having that much trouble to get through the gates is weird by itself. Besides that, there was no need to leave the property backwards, since the mansion has a roundabout in front:

Of course you can say that there might have been cars blocking the ambulance's way, yet the driver had at least 30 minutes before the EMT's showed up with the patient, so there was enough time to either remove the cars, or turn the ambulance in the right way. Yet they decide to leave the property backwards with a dying Michael Jackson in the back and no sirens are heard after they finally went on their way. So far for 'Michael Jackson RUSHED to the hospital'.

And even though it would not be picked up that day, the garbage was brought out:

Instead of a doctor, Jermaine makes the statement to the press about his 'passing' and we are also told that Jermaine is the only one of the family authorized to make statements:

We are soon presented Michael Jackson's 'last' picture by ET Online:

According to the EMT's they transported a 'sick, old, frail man', that they didn't recognize as being Michael Jackson. They later also say that he was already dead at the house, yet this picture clearly shows us Michael Jackson with a popping vein on his forehead. The EMT is performing CPR with one hand, on the collar bone. It doesn't look very professional, to say the least. This picture was made by The National Photo Group. Remember this name, because it will pop up a lot of times with questionable pictures. They were the only ones on the scene and this guy was the lucky one. Normally Michael Jackson is chased by paparazzi wherever he goes, they are lurking near his house, but on this day they all had a day off. There was one other guy with a camera, but he thought it was more important to make a picture of the other guy that was making the famous picture:

Now why isn't he running to the ambulance to make such a valuable picture himself? Why make a picture of the lucky photographer? That just doesn't make sense at all.

The ambulance picture is clearly a fake; Brian Oxman (Joe Jackson's attorney) even confirmed it

The photographer of National Photo Group, Ben Evenstad, knew Michael Jackson personally:

Here is an interview with Ben, where he slips up around 4:10. "...and the other people that were there that day and the other uhhhh...." What other day?

Last but not least, The National Enquirer reported in January 2009 that Michael Jackson had only 6 months to live:

And 6 months later he is dead, what a coincidence! The picture that was floating the internet back then that made people believe he was really that sick:

Credits go to.... exactly: The National Photo Group.

Next up is the flight to the morgue which was shown to us in the media.

Around 1:30 you can clearly see the body moving. If it's moving by itself or with the help of someone else is not important, it's moving and we get to see it. If someone moved it, that person must have been pretty strong to lift it that way, because he is not standing next to the body. That means he had to lift it while sitting at the head. Even though Michael Jackson was not the heaviest person in the world, it's still a lot of weight to lift, and besides that: why would the lift it?

~Michael Jackson BODY MOVING~

Another odd thing here is that the position of the body is off. In that type of helicopter, the stretcher should be positioned more at front, not in plain sight when the door opens. Where the body is positioned now, are chairs for the crew:

~Inside L.A. county sheriff helicopter air 5~

Click to play

Another questionable thing is the white sheet covering the body, since the LA Coroner has blue ones:

So far for the weird events on June 25th. It should be enough to set some alarm bells.

On June 26 we learn that a Demerol OD allegedly caused his death, later on it's changed to Propofol. The autopsy still has to be performed, but apparently they already know the cause of death.

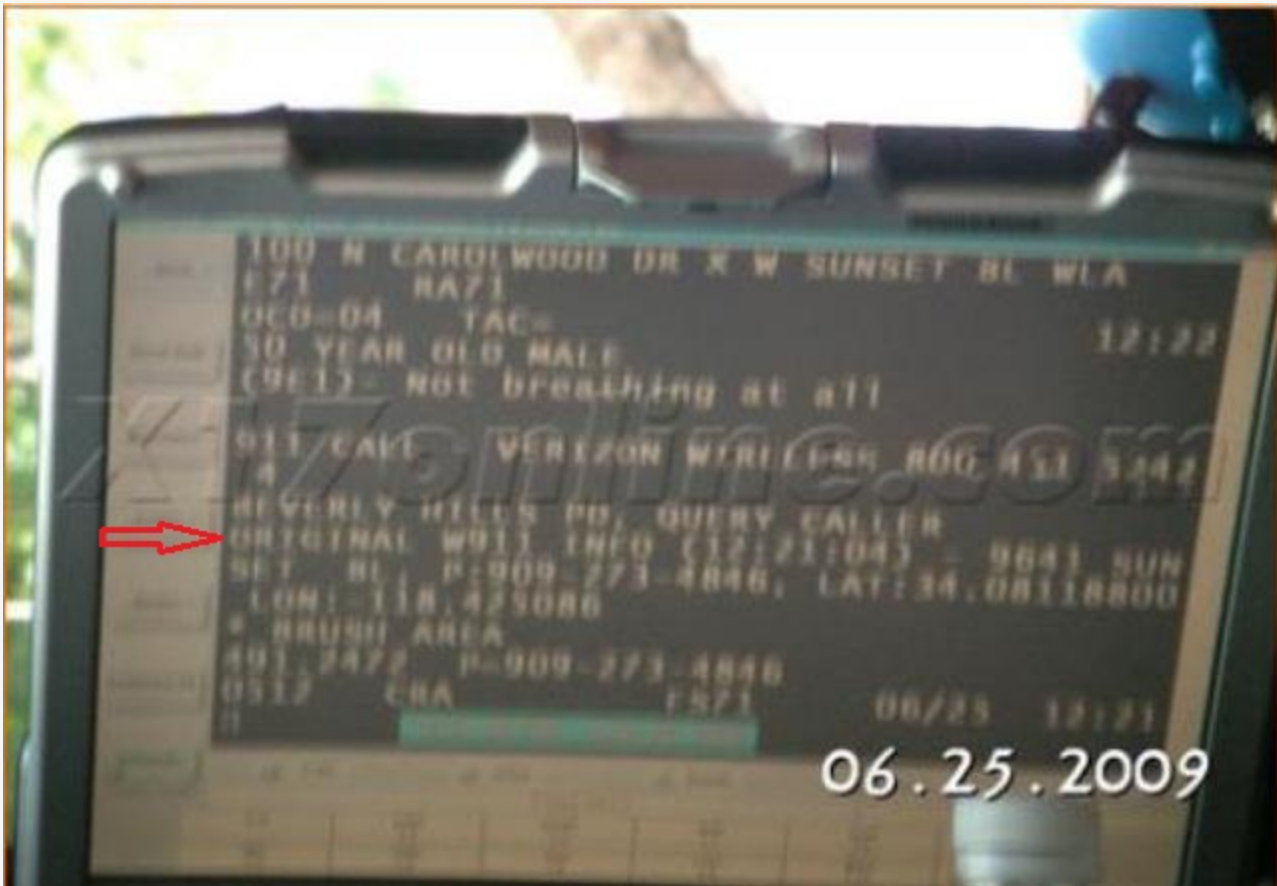

Another thing presented to us in the media is the 911-call, but we get 4 different versions:

Michael Jackson ~ The 911 call

THE 911-CALL...
4 DIFFERENT
VERSIONS:

According to what we heard in the media and what we have been shown in the ambulance footage, Michael Jackson was at home at Carolwood Drive when the 911-call was made. We hear the doctor in the background, so that means the caller should have been there as well. Yet the screen of the ambulance tells us something else:

The call wasn't made from 100 North Carolwood Drive, it was made from 9641 Sunset Boulevard.... The Beverly Hills Hotel:

We've all been told that there is a Cell Phone Tower at 9641 Sunset blvd which is the common explanation as to why the 911 screen cap has that address.

According to this site there is no Cell Phone Tower at 9641 Sunset Blvd.

Zoom in on The Beverly Hills Hotel (as recommended by the site) and see that there are no Cell Phone Towers. There are none marked on there.

Cell number 909 273 4846. Cell phones can be traced - especially in emergency situations. This call was made by a Verizon number, obviously as it says Verizon Wireless on the screen. When a person calls 911 from a cell phone the call is placed through to the PSAP (Public-safety answering point) call center.

"The location of the phone will be tracked using triangulation - by taking 2 or more readings, it is possible to calculate where the signal is coming from by working out the triangle that fits the signal strengths. The 3rd point is the location of the phone. (Meaning they don't pinpoint towers, they pinpoint the most likely physical location of the cell phone by determining the signal strengths it sends out in multiple directions) However, when the person who has the phone has made an emergency call, this GPS transmission will always be sent. This is designed to ensure that the police can always track a cell phone location, in order to get help to people who need it."

<http://ezinearticles.com/?How-to-Trace-a-Cell-Phone-Location&id=665747>

So if the caller was there, the doctor was there and Michael Jackson was at the Beverly Hills Hotel, then who did they pick up at Carolwood Drive?

We are also introduced to the doctor, Conrad Murray. For the next couple of months this picture will be the only one we see of the doc, before we get floated with pictures and videos of him.

We are being told the doctor performed CPR on Michael, and due to the leaked 911-call we know he performed it on the bed. This man is supposed to be a cardiologist, yet he performs CPR on a soft surface, while everyone knows this will not help at all. CPR needs to be performed on a hard and flat surface to be effective.

GLOBAL CARDIOVASCULAR ASSOCIATES, INC.

June 15, 2009

Dear Patients & Friends,

Because of a once in a lifetime opportunity, I had to make a most difficult decision to cease practice of medicine indefinitely. Over the years, I have come to know you both as patients and as friends. It has been more than pleasurable providing you with state of the art, quality care and having your trust and confidence.

Although the road varied from individual to individual, the challenge was undertaken with depth and concern for each of you and for the most part we were successful. Because of my continued concern for your health, my mission at this time is to find a suitable replacement who will continue my practice (Global Cardiovascular Associates); thereby giving you the opportunity to continue your care with us or elsewhere if you choose.

In my absence, I will continue to manage the practice, and be involved as much as possible but it will be from a distance.

On behalf of my family and my staff, I would like to state how much they have appreciated you, as I have. Again, I am deeply saddened to leave you at this point, but please know my absence is not permanent. I wish each and every one of you, continued good health, success, prosperity and peace. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Conrad Murray, MD

Also published by TMZ is a picture of the closed practice of Murray. Interesting to see that the waiting room we see does not resemble the waiting room we see behind Murray on the picture as posted above, not at all.

On July 1st we are provided (again by TMZ) with Michael's last will. The first page states the following:

LAST WILL

MICHAEL JOSEPH JACKSON

I, MICHAEL JOSEPH JACKSON, a resident of the State of California, declare this to be my last Will, and do hereby revoke all former wills and codicils made by me.

I declare that I am not married. My marriage to DEBORAH JEAN ROWE JACKSON has been dissolved. I have three children now living, PRINCE MICHAEL JACKSON, JR., PARIS MICHAEL KATHERINE JACKSON and PRINCE MICHAEL JOSEPH JACKSON, II. I have no other children, living or deceased.

A few things are off already. First of all his middle name states 'Joseph'. Although most people think that Joseph is his middle name, the indictment of the child molestation case in 2003 states something else:

According to the birth certificate, Blanket's name is Prince Michael Jackson, II, yet the will says his name is Prince Michael Joseph Jackson, II.

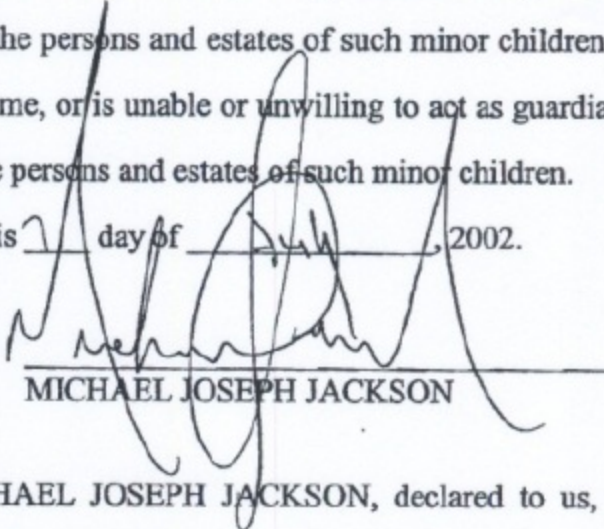

So what is wrong here? Did Michael Jackson forget how he named his children and did the two executors forget to check as well? And are the birth certificates real? The name of the father is listed as Michael Joseph Jackson, and we just learned his legal name is Michael Joe Jackson.

Also, Debbie Rowe's middle name is spelled differently on Paris and Prince birth certificates.

If KATHERINE JACKSON fails to survive me, or is unable or unwilling to act as guardian, I nominate DIANA ROSS as guardian of the persons and estates of such minor children.

I subscribe my name to this Will this 7 day of July, 2002.

MICHAEL JOSEPH JACKSON

On the date written below, MICHAEL JOSEPH JACKSON, declared to us, the Signed July 7, 2002, exactly 7 years before the memorial. The number 7 will pop up a lot of times in this story. According to Randy Jackson, the signature on the will is not Michael's. Conclusion must be that the will is a fake.

You may think now that he would be in major trouble if he faked his death, because these are fake documents. But a fake of a fake is not fraud. You should also know that Michael's life insurance wasn't paid out, it was cashed in. You can cash in a life insurance while you are alive. And last but not least: government parties must be aware of this, since they have to know his legal name and they have to know that the released documents are fake. If he has the FBI on his side, a lot can be done.

The memorial was held at July 7, 2009. Seven years after the will was signed. The first weird thing was the circus:

AP

TMZ reports:

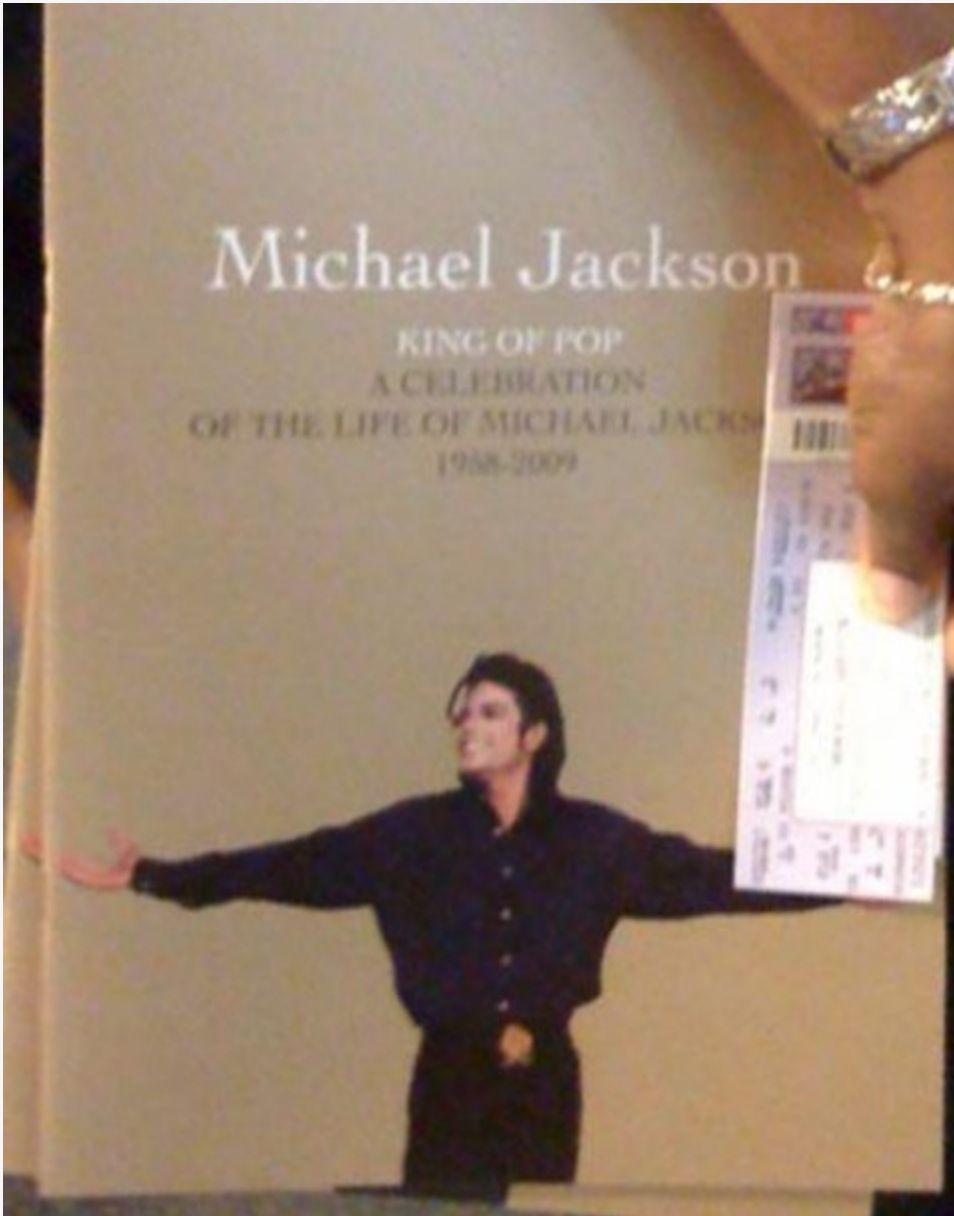

“Like Michael Jackson's memorial couldn't get any crazier -- Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey continued an L.A. tradition this morning by parading their elephants through downtown ... to the Staples Center.”

“Phineas Taylor Barnum (July 5, 1810 – April 7, 1891) was an American showman, businessman, and entertainer, remembered for promoting celebrated hoaxes and for founding the circus that became the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.”

Source: Wikipedia.org

Michael is a fan of Barnum. Was it a coincidence that the Barnum circus was there? Maybe, but there are too many coincidences in this story to be a coincidence. With numerology the coincidences can even be debunked, more about that later.

The memorial program:

“A celebration of the LIFE of Michael Jackson”

So let the circus begin! First we have to wait a long time before it begins. As the casket is brought in, the choir begins to sing:

"Soon and very soon, we are going to see the king"

Somewhere halfway through Jennifer Hudson performs "Will you be there".

The spoken words in the song are done by Michael himself, yet a small snippet was changed. In the original lyrics and every recording available, the lyrics are: "In my anguish and my pain". Yet in this version it is "In my anguish and my painS". The family might have used a recording we don't know about, yet if that recording is of such low quality, it wouldn't make sense.

Jermaine performs "Smile", but he 'screws up' big time.

Instead of "Light up your face with gladness – Hide every trace of sadness" he sings "Light up your face with sadness – Hide every trace of gladness" without blinking.

Kenny Ortega makes a nice slip up as well:

"We were here, we were right here a little less than a week ago and Michael was with us."
Michael was 'dead' a little less than a week ago...

There was a total lack of emotions from the family and the kids even looked pretty bored while chewing gum. Even though they were trying, we haven't seen one tear, not even by Paris. And why the dark sunglasses? To hide the tears, or to hide the lack of tears?

On the screen at the end they showed us this picture:

This is a picture of Liberian Girl. For those who don't know the clip: The clip was shot while people were waiting for Michael. At the end he appears, showing that he was directing behind the scenes all along.

On July 7 TMZ comes up with the following article:

Michael Jackson -- #7

Get ready to have your mind blown. Ready? Here we go ...

- Michael Jackson signed his will on 7/7/02.
- Michael Jackson's memorial was on 7/7/09 ... exactly 7 years after the will was signed.
- Michael Jackson's two biggest hits -- "Black & White" and "Billie Jean" -- were each #1 for 7 weeks.
- Michael Jackson's three biggest albums -- "Thriller," "Bad" and "Dangerous" -- each produced 7 top 40 hits.
- Michael Jackson was the 7th of 9 children.
- Michael Jackson was born in 1958 ... $19 + 58 = 77$
- Michael Jackson died on the 25th ... $2 + 5 = 7$
- Michael Jackson has 7 letters in his first and last name.

If you're looking for lottery numbers tonight, we recommend something with the number 7 in it.

Pointing out the 7's in Michael's life. Like we told you before, the 7's will pop up quite a few times.

Also leaked on July 7 is the Death Certificate:

The deceased on this document: Michael Joseph Jackson. Since we learned already that his legal name is Michael Joe Jackson (which means this name has to be mentioned on the Death Certificate as well, besides aliases) we know this is again a fake of a fake.

On July 16 an unreleased song was leaked called "A Place with no name". As of today, there is still no name on the crypt in the Grand Mausoleum where he is supposed to be buried.

On August 18th we get to see Dr. Murray for the first time. The good ol' doc made a video for his few patients and published it on YouTube.

Instead of sending his patients a letter, this doctor decides to hire a camera man to film him in HD so he can inform his patients on YouTube. You can say whatever you want, but this is just plain weird.

On August 25 we have the first "could he still be alive?" report. A video is shown on German television showing (someone that looks like) Michael Jackson jumping out of a coroner's van.

This video is probably as real as the existence of unicorns – but the clip, claiming to show Michael Jackson walking out of the back of a Coroner's van after his "death," is making the rounds on the Internet today.

According to the LiveLeak post: "I checked the license plate number and it looks like the King of Pop is jumping out of the same van, his dead body has been in. I got the original video tape from a trustworthy source. I know him for years. And I am sure it's real and Michael is alive."

A fake? Probably, but a lot of people searched the internet back then, ending up investigating this and most of them are still here. Mission accomplished.

September 3rd, Michael will finally be buried. Although he is supposedly dead for more than 2 months, LaToya says he looked great in his casket. Same scenario as with the memorial, the guests have to wait for Michael... until it's dark.

The picture displayed: Liberian Girl...

Say cheese!

Now here is Forest Lawn seen from above:

But if we look at this screenshot, we see more trees and a complete different road.

In this shot we see a lamp reflected in the car which is used in films to create daylight inside a studio:

Yet if we look at the helicopter footage (having helicopter footage is weird by itself, since there was a no-fly zone there that day) we can see the same lamp, floating way too high to be reflected in the car window. Besides that, how is it possible that lamp is even hanging there and on what?

During the burial, Larry King had a quite interesting guest, long time Michael Jackson friend Dave Dave:

Here is Dave Dave on Larry King compared to the real Dave.

Why wouldn't Dave speak up about it now that it has gone all over the internet and even television? Dave works for Michael, 'nuff said.

October 11th, the song This is It leaks.

It's the second time an unreleased song was leaked, while the only ones in possession of the songs are the family and Sony has some in their vault. Sony wouldn't leak it, because Sony wants to make money. If people can download it before the release, the sales go down. So it must have been leaked by the family. It is clear that this isn't a recent song (which is later confirmed). It's also not complete, some lyrics are incomplete. This is probably an old demo.

On October 28th the documentary "Michael Jackson's This is It" premieres. The movie is full of MJ doubles, as Joe Jackson already revealed a few weeks before. Some might disagree, but if you look at this picture below, you must admit that something is off.

The very beginning:

“And piece by piece by piece, MJ is revealed until he drops out.”

In the new Smooth Criminal clip we can see Rita Hayworth in a scene from “Gilda”. The actor who played the character who faked his death was born at the same day and month as Michael.

There are many things in the movie we would like to point out, but if you are completely new to the hoax, it might be hard to understand all at once.

If you didn't wait until after the credits of the movie, you might have missed this:

'Let me bathe in my own time when I come back in. I'm gonna button my shirt or my jacket or whatever it is. I'm gonna look around a little bit, play with them. Snap my fingers maybe, then bam!'

Besides this, there was no "RIP Michael Jackson", no mention of his death at all.

December 22, 2009. With a one day delay the FBI releases Michael Jackson's file. The 333 page file proves Michael's innocence. Download the FBI file here: <http://www.michaeljacksonhoaxforum.com/blog/fbfiles.zip>

January 3, 2010: another unreleased Michael Jackson song hits the web:

TMZ reports:

"Much like 2Pac, Michael Jackson has no problem releasing new music, even though he's ... ya know, dead."

At the top, it says 'From: Ticketmaster Performer Alert <newsletter@reply.ticketmaster.com>', 'Sent: Fri, Jan 22, 2010 7:13 am', and 'Subject: Don't miss Michael Jackson'. Below this is a black header with the 'ticketmaster' logo and 'PerformerAlert January 22, 2010'. A second black header says 'Michael Jackson On Sale 01/23/10'. The main content area features a photo of Michael Jackson performing, a 'ON SALE' badge, and the event details: 'Michael Jackson', 'Sat, 01/23/10 10:00am', 'Spreckels Theatre San Diego', and 'Sun, 02/14/10 5:00pm'. There are buttons for 'Find Tickets' and 'Get A Text Alert'. A circular inset image of Michael Jackson is overlaid on the right side of the email screenshot.

The email above sure makes it seem like Michael is performing in San Diego on Valentine's Day. But the show is actually a laser light show set to Michael's music. It's an hour and a half long and tickets are around $40. The show starts at 5:00 PM and there is a Pink Floyd one at 7:30 PM.

Plenty of good seats still available. Shocker.

January 31, The Grammys. There was a big tribute to Michael Jackson, yet they 'forgot' to mention him in the "In Memoriam" list of passed artists. Not really someone you would forget...

The kids accepted the Lifetime achievement award and although Paris practiced her speech for a week (according to TMZ), this was all she had to say:

“Daddy was supposed to be here, daddy was going to perform this year, but he couldn’t perform last year. Thank you, we love you daddy”.

February 7, Doc. Murray visit’s MJ’s tomb. By himself at Forest Lawn and not one fan spotted and attacked him. He is actually posing for.... again The National Photo Group. Those guys are Lucky bastards!

February 8, Murray will be charged with manslaughter. But before he goes to court, he’s getting himself some coffee. And who are lucky enough to get him on camera?

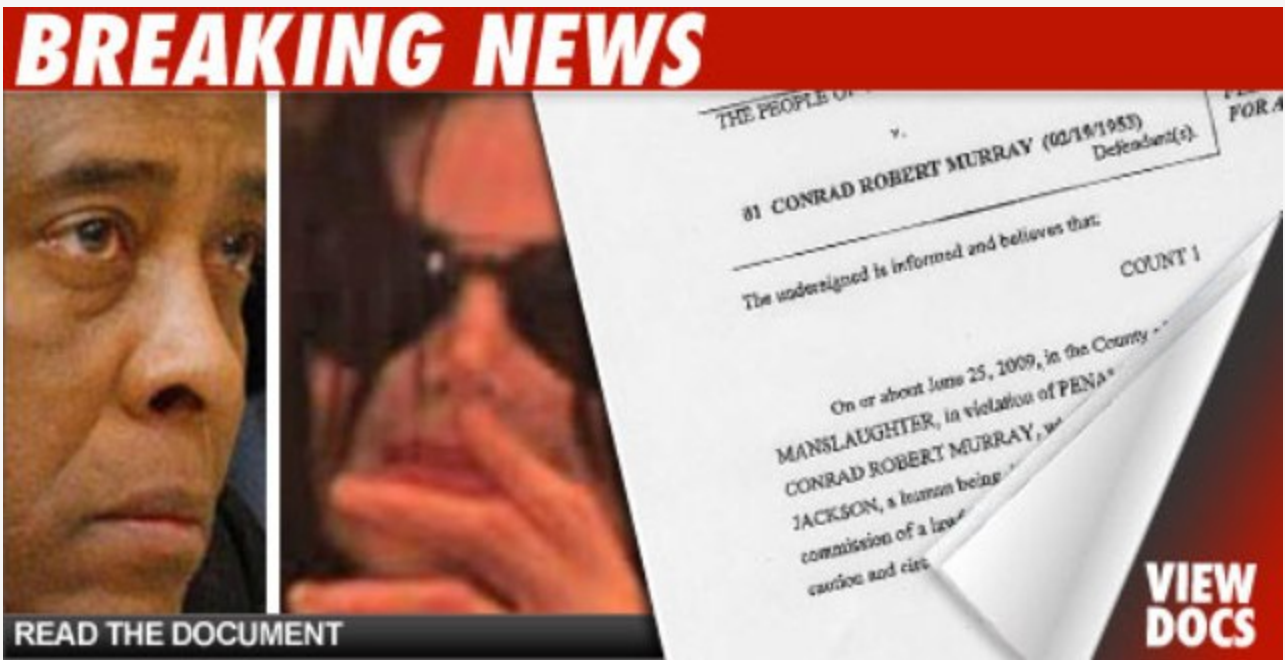

The National Photo Group!

They also follow him to his car; the good ol' doc doesn't seem to be annoyed by the paps.

Conrad Murray charged in Michael Jackson death:

According to the criminal complaint, the D.A. alleges Dr. Murray "did unlawfully, and without malice, kill Michael Joseph Jackson ... in the commission of an unlawful act, not a felony; and in the commission of a lawful act which might have produced death, in an unlawful manner, and without due caution and circumspection."

The undersigned is informed and believes that:

COUNT 1

On or about June 25, 2009, in the County of Los Angeles, the crime of INVOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER, in violation of PENAL CODE SECTION 192(b), a Felony, was committed by CONRAD ROBERT MURRAY, who did unlawfully, and without malice, kill MICHAEL JOSEPH JACKSON, a human being, in the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to a felony; and in the commission of a lawful act which might have produced death, in an unlawful manner, and without due caution and circumspection.

There is only one count, which is strange by itself if you remember that Michael Jackson was charged with 10 counts with the child molestation case. The more counts, the bigger the chance you can get someone behind bars. Apparently the need to get Murray in Jail is not that high. We can also see he allegedly killed Michael Joseph Jackson, a non-existing person.

His bail was set to $ 75,000 at least that is what TMZ reports:

Yet if we do a search ourselves, we will learn that Murray is nowhere to be found: http://app4.lasd.org/iic/ajis_search.cfm

He has been listed with a $ 75,000 bail, a few hours later it was $ 0 bail, now he is not listed at all.

History is repeating itself. An innocent black man, condemned without trial. Murray is called Doctor Death by the media and the public and people assume he is guilty, without even taking the effort to look at the case, which makes no sense at all. Could it be that Michael Jackson is trying to teach us something?

Also released on February 8 is the autopsy report.

If this doesn't make you at least doubt Michael Jackson's death, nothing probably will.

First of all there are 3 different names stated on this document:

CIRCUMSTANCES:
The following information is taken from the Investigator Report, preliminary autopsy notes, and records from UCLA Ronald Reagan Medical Center currently in the file.

Michael Joe Jackson is nowhere to be found on the report.

According to the report, Michael was covered with needle marks, yet people who worked with him days before his 'death', say they absolutely didn't see such marks on his arms or in the neck.

The autopsy report says the person on the table had plastic surgery on the ears; Michael Jackson never had surgery on his ears.

Michael Jackson added a cleft to his chin back in the BAD-era, yet no bone alteration or any of such is mentioned in the report.

There is no mention of the Pepsi 'accident' which left a scar on his scalp for which he had surgery.

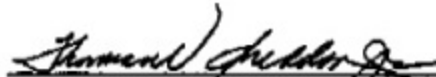

There is no mention of Lupus, and they didn't find any medicine in his blood for the treatment as well.

Michael Jackson has a bump on one of his wrists, which is clearly visible on many pictures, yet nothing about that is mentioned on the report.

According to the report, Michael is 5'9" and has Brown hair, according to the 2003 indictment Michael is 5'11", a difference of 2 inches, and has black hair.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT AND THAT THIS COMPLAINT CONSISTS OF 9 COUNTS.

There is more weirdness on the autopsy report, but the above is enough to determine that the body (IF a body was examined) was not that of Michael Jackson. Too many of his features are missing.

Further on in February a LOT of Creditor claims, and TMZ and Jermaine promoting the hoax:

Dr. Conrad Murray Impostor Exposed

There is someone pretending to be Dr. Conrad Murray -- asking his fans for prayers and support -- but TMZ has learned it's a fraud.

Please consider that I too am a father, do not judge or condemn me until you have walked in my shoes. Please pray for my family

1:23 AM Feb 9th from web

Just one day after the real Dr. Murray appeared in court to face an involuntary manslaughter charge in the death of Michael Jackson, a person using a Twitter account under the name DrConradMurray left the following message:

"Please consider that I too am a father, do not judge or condemn me until you have walked in my shoes. Please pray for my family"

But it's all a hoax: TMZ spoke to a rep for Dr. Murray's lawyer who told us, "It is 100 percent fake. He doesn't even have a smart phone."

Jermaine Jackson Knows Who Killed Michael

But it's a secret. Shhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!!!!!!

Jermaine Jackson told a radio station in Australia the timeline surrounding Michael Jackson's death was fishy, saying, Michael was "not with us way before he arrived to the airport ... I mean way before he arrived to the hospital."

Jermaine says he thinks Dr. Conrad Murray "didn't act alone" and "it's all going to come out."

Fire Officials: MJ Emergency Tape is Bogus

BREAKING NEWS

Another Michael Jackson hoax -- this time it's all over a recording that's being reported as a transmission from the paramedics who took MJ to UCLA on the day he died.

The recording features a man saying "Patient is Michael Jackson, the pop star singer ... we should be there in five minutes. It doesn't look good."

But TMZ spoke to L.A. City Fire Dept. Captain Steve Ruda who told us, "It is not our conversation. It is not any of the paramedics who treated Michael Jackson."

We're told there are several indicators on the tape which show it could not have originated from an L.A. City Fire employee.

We're told officials are not supposed to name the patient and the terminology used in the recording is not consistent with terms used by the department.

Yeah Jermaine, and don't forget to light up your face with sadness!

March 4, confirmation that TMZ watched this website. Posted and subtitled by Michael Jackson Death Hoax Investigators on YouTube, later published by TMZ:

Jermaine Jackson ... Connect the Dots

Jermaine Jackson has finally admitted that his son, Jaafar Jackson, purchased a "little thing" online recently ... but Jermaine claims his child never used it on Michael Jackson's son, Blanket.

It's all part of a new interview Jermaine just gave to Dutch TV's "rt(4)," in which Jackson never explains what the "little thing" is ... but it's easy to read between the lines.

But the big question: Is Jermaine saying he knew his 13-year-old son was buying a stun gun online?

On April 2, The National Photo Group has a Photo shoot with Murray again, jogging...

A bit weird of course, Murray again has no problems to be photographed and is actually posing for the pictures.

On April 5 we hear for the First time ever Michael was Coca-Cola addicted. And Murray is promoting Coca-Cola by posing for the camera of again....The National Photo Group!

(Ps: Also see how the most known doctor on earth can walk around without anyone even looking at the guy)

CELEBRITY JUSTICE

Jackson's Demanding Personality On Trial

Originally posted Apr 5th 2010 6:00 AM PDT by TMZ Staff Like

EXCLUSIVE

It sounds crazy, but Michael Jackson's Coca-Cola addiction may become a building block in Dr. Conrad Murray's legal strategy.

TMZ broke the story that Dr. Murray's defense will be that Michael Jackson caused his own death by pumping a lethal dose of Propofol into his own body during the time the doctor was out of the room.

Sources familiar with the defense strategy tell us one of the missions is to show that Michael Jackson was a demanding celebrity who wanted what he wanted when he wanted it, even if it posed a danger to himself.

One of the ways the defense will prove its point is with the famous soft drink. Jackson consumed massive quantities of Coca-Cola, knowing full well it was laden with caffeine and would make it next to impossible to fall asleep.

Our sources say the defense has numerous examples of situations where Jackson hyped himself up with caffeine from soda and then used drugs -- including Propofol -- as the ultimate sleeping solution.

The upshot -- Jackson was a guy who wanted instant gratification ... so the notion that he would wake up when Dr. Murray was out of the room, become frustrated and self-medicate with Propofol is consistent with his personality.

Now here is the new Coca Cola advertisement for 5 Alive:

The Dodo is supposed to be dead, but resurrects, dancing and moon walking singing 'I'm Alive'. It's at least quite odd after articles about Michael Jackson's Coca Cola addiction.

On April 10 TMZ publishes this article out of the blue:

Michael Jackson -- Casket Mystery Solved

Originally posted Apr 10th 2010 7:53 AM PDT by TMZ Staff Like 2,291

It's the answer to the question you were kinda curious about, then forgot about, but now you're like "Holy cow, I really want to know -- how did Michael Jackson's body seemingly disappear after his memorial, only to reappear at the cemetery?"

TMZ.com composite (aka THIS AIN'T REAL)

On July 7, 2009 the Staples Center memorial was held in front of thousands of people in downtown L.A. -- Jackson's body was ensconced in a $25,000 bronze casket.

After the memorial, although hundreds of cameras and thousands of eyes were trained on the exits, no one saw any evidence that the casket left the building. It fueled a grassy knoll-type theory that Jackson's body wasn't really inside the casket and maybe he was still alive.

Finally, our spies have come clean. Jackson's body did indeed arrive in a hearse, but it left in a SWAT van. The van was driven to a secret location, where it rendezvoused with a Forest Lawn van -- which then transported the body to the cemetery without being noticed.

You're welcome.
